LOST NEW ORLEANS MAN FOUND ON SATURDAY MORNING

A New Orleans man was lost following a fishing trip Friday was found at 10:30 Saturday morning.

According to Deputy Sheriff John Kachler he was notified Saturday by Forest Lafontaine at Carver's Fishing Camp near Pearlton that a man had been lost in the nearby swamp.

Kachler said he was informed by William J. Shelton of Hattiesburg, who had been fishing in that locality that he had seen a man in the swamp on the side of the river, but he was unaware at the time that the man was lost.

He accompanied Kachler in his boat from Carver's camp to the spot where he had seen the man; when they arrived he had left there and was found about a half mile further up at Peters Lake on the Louisiana side. The man was identified by Kachler as C. H. Brady of New Orleans.

Kachler reported Brady said he and Less Crawford of Pearl River had gone fishing Friday morning about 4:30 a. m. he started to return to the car with the oars, tackle and other fishing equipment and told Crawford to remain and watch the ramp which they had brought to fish from and he would return and help him carry it to the car. He lost his way to the vehicle and was overtaken by darkness and walked in the swamp all night.

Kachler said Crawford, who was familiar with the swamp, made his way to Pearl River reaching there late Saturday night and informed officers that Brady had been lost. A searching party was being formed when Kachler called officers to report on Crawford. Kachler said Brady was suffering from mosquito bites and was upset from drinking river water.

50 Hancock County 4-Hers Return From Camp

Approximately 50 Hancock County 4-Hers returned Wednesday evening from the 4-H Training Center at Ocean Springs where they attended for a three-day period.

AIR FORCE MAN SHOT IN ARM SATURDAY NIGHT

Sheriff Gerald Price, Sr., reported a member of the Air Force was shot in the arm by a constable Saturday night after causing a disturbance and resisting arrest.

Sheriff Price quoted Beat 4 Constable Jervis Moran as saying S. Sgt. Billy E. Miller, stationed at Keesler Air Force base, drinking entered Fritz's cafe and filling station at Klin about 8 o'clock Saturday night and used profanity in the presence of customers in the cafe at the time.

Moran said he asked him to stop but Miller who had apparently been drinking heavily continued to cause a disturbance. When he got up to leave Moran advised him not to get in his car until he was sober enough to drive, but he backed out and drove off. The constable followed him for approximately two and a half miles south of Bay St. Louis and finally got in front of Miller's car, blocked the road and told him he was under arrest. Miller according to Price opened the glove compartment and reached into it as if to get a gun, he told the arresting officer, "I will kill you for stopping me." Price quoted Moran as saying. The constable shot him in the right shoulder, handcuffed him and brought him to Hancock General Hospital and notified the sheriff's office, who contacted the Provost Marshal's office at Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi.

He was transferred to the base hospital by Keesler AFB ambulance Sunday morning.

Miller was charged with disturbing the peace, using profanity, driving while intoxicated and threatening an officer.

Property Damage Only In Auto Accident Saturday Afternoon

Property damage, but no personal injury was reported in a two-car collision Saturday afternoon.

The incident occurred about 4:15 p. m. on Waveland Beach.

According to Deputy Sheriff Nolan Kingston, Burt Buquo, operating a 1936 Buick with trailer and boat, traveling from Waveland to Bay St. Louis, and a Vauxhall driven by Mrs. A. Torgerson collided near the Mollere property on Waveland Beach.

Damage was estimated at $100 to each car.

Kingston and Waveland Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois were the investigating officers.

Winners Of St. John's Annual Church Fair

The first prize, a T. V. set given at the St. John Catholic Church Fair at Lakeshore was given to Herman Johnson; second prize, a wrist watch, to Mrs. Gwen Taconi and the third prize, a silver service to Mrs. Kenneth Favre.

Mrs. Robert Ladner was winner of Saturday night's entrance prize and Mrs. Yale Thompson won Sunday.

Father Hayes wishes to express his thanks and appreciation to all who helped in any way to make the fair such a tremendous success.

Firecracker Law To Be Enforced Says Sheriff Gerald Price

Sheriff Gerald V. Price, stated this week that he was going to enforce the firecracker law. Only Type C fireworks are allowed, he continued.

These he said, include small Japanese type firecrackers, sparklers, unexplosive sky rockets and small Roman candles. Roman candles that explode in the air are prohibited.

Legal fireworks are printed with the words Type C which are marked by the manufacturer. Dealers selling or having any other type in their possession will be prosecuted. Fireworks cannot be sold after July 5, until the Christmas and New Year season, the Sheriff said.

Price stated he was acting in compliance with state law and was cooperating with state officials because of the number of injuries caused by fireworks in recent years.

Supervised fireworks exhibits by the American Legion and other organizations are legal under state law, the sheriff concluded.

Newest Edition Of Coast's Most Used Book Off The Press

The newest edition of the Mississippi Coast's most used reference book is off the press and you should be getting yours soon.

It is Sou, Bell's annual record of expansion in this area—the telephone directory.

Delivery was scheduled to begin June 28, according to T. H. Bailey, Biloxi group manager and J. C. Dabney, Gulfport Group manager for Southern Bell.

When you go looking for your new directory this year, it won't be hard to find. It will have a cover of green as before but the young lady using the white telephone will be dressed in blue.

This year's edition contains approximately 9,359 in its yellow listings in its white pages and approximately 9,356 in its yellow classified section. It has 196 pages in both sections, or 15 more than last year, and weighs 15 ounces.

About 41,674 directories will be delivered in this area. All deliveries should be completed by June 30, 1960. If you have not received your directory by then you should notify the telephone business office. Directories by exchanges total for Gulfport (including Long Beach) 16,732; Bay St. Louis (including Waveland) 3,201; Biloxi 15,975; Logtown 180; Pass Christian 2,145; Ocean Springs (including Vancleave) 2,200.

Mr. Dabney suggests that you give your old directory to the person making delivery. That way, there is no chance of your looking in the old directory for a number and possibly getting the wrong one.

The compilation and production of your directory is a time-consuming, never-ending job for Southern Bell's directory department employees. Listings must be added, corrected or deleted as often as people have telephone service installed, change telephone numbers, addresses or move out of town.

Every change in listing must be checked and double-checked so that the next directory will be accurate and up-to-date.

There are some 50 employees in Mississippi engaged in keeping 63 directories up-to-date.

Your name gets into the directory like this:

ED P. ORTIE

Paul Mahoney Lagasse, Sr., 53, a native of New Orleans, and a resident of Bay St. Louis for the past ten years, was fatally injured early Tuesday morning, June 28.

According to Coroner Emile Piazza, Lagasse, who was traveling towards the beach on the Lakeshore road about 3:10 a. m., failed to negotiate a curve in the road and crashed into a tree in front of the Lakeshore school.

The victim, who was taken to Hancock General Hospital, was pronounced dead at 4 a. m.

An inquest jury was empaneled at Fahey-Whitfield Funeral home by Coroner Piazza with Leon Capdepon, Julius Weber, John Jacobs, W. J. Lafontaine, Lloyd Ladner and T. J. Morel, jurors. They returned a verdict of accidental death. Robert Coleman, deputy Sheriff, was the investigating officer.

Mr. Lagasse was the husband of Althea Smith Lagasse, father of Paul Lagasse, Jr., U. S. Coast Guards, New London, Conn., Patrick M. Lagasse of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. Monroe A. Caballero of New Orleans; step-father of Adelmae and Perry Young of Bay St. Louis. He is also survived by two brothers, Henry Lagasse, Jr. and Elwin Lagasse and a sister, Mrs. M. Romez, all of New Orleans. He was the son of the late Henry and Elvina Mahoney Lagasse of New Orleans.

He was a sales representative for Jackson Brewing Company of New Orleans.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from Jacob Schoen and Son Funeral Home, New Orleans at 2:30 p. m. followed by religious services at Bayou LaCroix at 4 p. m. Interment was in Bayou LaCroix Cemetery.

MISS GAYLE PARKER

Mr. Ed P. Ortie is serving as honorary president of the annual Deep Sea Rodeo, which starts tomorrow, Friday, July 1st, in Gulfport.

Miss Gayle Parker, also of Bay St. Louis is queen of the Rodeo, and will reign during the four-day event.

Federal Assistance For Expenditures Are Certified

R. E. Webb, principal of North Central School, was informed by Representative William M. Colmer June 16, 1960, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare had approved his project for Federal Assistance for current expenditures under Public Law 874, which provides financial assistance toward the education of children whose parents are employed by the government. Webb was advised the tentative entitlement for fiscal year 1960 is $6,301.00 and $4,840.00 has been certified for immediate payment.

The survey of children attending schools in the Federally affected areas was made earlier this year by principal Webb.

Copy of the order is sent to the Director of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and to the Director of the Office of Education.

The survey results will be used in the compilation of the

A specialty act by members of the Dottie Russell School of Dancing will also be featured.

A snappy parade featuring the contestants riding in the official Oldsmobile convertibles of the Miss America contest will begin promptly at two p. m., July 1st.

Following the parade a tea for the judges and contestants will be given at Mrs. Olio Mollere's home, the purpose being to allow the judges to familiarize themselves with the contestants on an informal basis before the actual judging follows.

Tickets for the Pageant are going fast and E. J. Mareno, ticket chairman, advised everyone who may wish to attend to get their tickets now from any of the following stores where they are on sale: Jittery Jungle, Winkie Dixie, G.A. Food Store, Waveland and Bay St. Louis. Those relatives and close friends of the contestants in order to insure them a good seat should see the

JUST A FEW MINUTES OF YOUR TIME ...

Mr. Fourth of July motorist! Which can you most afford to lose?

Your life?

Your family?

A big slice of your income?

A few minutes of your time?

If given a choice, each of us would rather sacrifice a few minutes of our time, even precious time, than lose a member of our family, our own life, or that other "necessity" to Atomic Age living, the almighty dollar. And although we don't think about it, we are given this choice each and every time we get behind the wheel of an automobile.

This Fourth of July weekend may see a record volume of traffic on Mississippi highways. Commissioner of Public Safety Thomas Shelton and the Mississippi Highway Patrol warn that our chances of having an auto crash multiply with abnormal traffic flow.

During the long Fourth of July weekend, 1957, Mississippi traffic accidents killed 20 motorists and injured 75 others, some seriously. Of course, this was an unusually high holiday toll. But it could happen again. It could happen this Fourth of July.

Just remember! You have the choice and the difference between yourself and an accident may be just a few minutes of your time.

"South Pacific" To Play At Star Theatre Saturday Thru Wednesday

Rodgers and Hammerstein's Pulitzer prize-winning musical, will play at the Star Theatre on Saturday through Wednesday.

The screen version was directed by Joshua Logan, who also directed the original stage production which opened on Broadway in 1949 and ran for almost five years.

The same creative team, responsible for "South Pacific's" theatre production, brought it to the screen under Buddy Adler's producing guidance. Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II and Joshua Logan. The now-famous music and lyrics, introduced ten years ago, sound as fresh as ever on the screen.

"South Pacific" adapted from James Michener's best-selling novel, "Tales of the South Pacific," is the love story of a U. S. Navy nurse, played by Mitzi Gaynor, during World War II, who falls in love with a French plantation owner, portrayed by Rossano Brazzi, on a Pacific island. A concurrent love story concerns a Marine officer (John Kerr) and a native girl, played by France Nuyen (who was specially picked for the role because of her Eurasian background and beauty).

Trapani's Softball Team Still Winning Trophies

Trapani's Knock-Knock Softball team captured two more trophies at the Gulf Tournaments Sunday by winning three games, defeating Pine Hills 7 to 3, Bay Youth Center 14 to 4, St. William 7-3.

Cecil Leinen pitched all three games. Trapani is hosting the Bay League and will play in the Past Tournament this Saturday. You can't knock the Knock-Knocks!

GEORGETTE B. HALL

Mrs. A. L. Rau of Beach Boulevard, was hostess to over 100 foreign born young people Sunday, June 26. The group consisted of members of Cosmopolitan Club and students of Tulane University. Everyone enjoyed a box lunch and cold drinks as well as swimming and outdoor games. Miss Joan Swanya and Mrs. Roger Derbe chaperoned the members of the Cosmopolitan Club and Dr. and Mrs. McCray of Tulane chaperoned university students. The group departed after their wonderful outing expressing heartfelt appreciation for their day on the Gulf Coast away from the busy city.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks and Mrs. Addie Walker for the past few days were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Prophit, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Green, and Mr. and Mrs. Dibelman Bernhardt of Monroe. La. While here the menfolk enjoyed fishing while the ladies just relaxed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Harris and children, Glenn and Tim, and Mrs. Alex Bourg, of Golden Meadow, La., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harris. Mrs. Harris' cousin, Miss Cora McDonald, aeronautics and radar instructor at Biloxi's Keesler Field, has been awarded the sixteenth annual Amelia Earhart Scholarship by Governor Alfred D. Rosellini of the state of Washington. The award is presented by the "99's", women's international flying organization which sponsors the famous Powder Puff Derby. Miss McDonald, who is originally from Hattiesburg, was honored by the organization for her contribution to flying, her interest, proficiency, and work in the teaching of aeronautics and radar. She is a veteran flyer with over twenty years of flying experience. The Amelia Earhart Scholarship is a signal honor and this column extends Miss McDonald heartiest congratulations.

Welcome is extended to the Rev. Dale Lyons and his grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Ware, who made so many friends in this area last Sunday and during the past week. Rev. Lyons preached his first sermon

Other guests who welcomed Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Shelton to Waveland were Mesdames T. C. Holmes, Jack Norris, O. H. Williams, Gray Wade, Fred Koenig, Curtis Everidge, Lawson Colby and Joe Smith.

Misses Mary Margaret Turcotte and Ann Shippey, unit leader and camp consultant respectively of the Girl Scouts, will have their hands full this week at the Girl Scout Day Camp at St. James Major Camp near Kiln. The girls are having a busy and successful meet. Youngsters Martha Lynch and Edna Aggie Bourgeois are among the scouts attending the camp.

High School students interested in summer school must register Friday, July 8, in the principal's office of Bay High School. Classes begin Monday, July 11 and end August 13. English, Math and History will be offered. Tuition is $30.00.

Mrs. Lewis Wagner entertained members of the girls' younger set Monday morning at her Nicholson Avenue home honoring "Tiger" Rhett and Alicia Glass who are visiting their father, Mr. Powell Glass, Jr. and Mrs. Glass. The three attractive misses are enjoying a round of informality parties and are rapidly getting acquainted.

Detlef Quandt, the German exchange student who has been making his home this past year with the Mayfield family, was honored at a farewell party Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watts on Watts Road. Detlef leaves Wednesday for his home in Germany, stopping enroute to visit in Washington, D. C. and New York. His itinerary also include a stop in Paris France. The party at the Watt home was sponsored by the HOEYC (House of Episcopal Youth Churchmen) and members of the group as well as Detlef's closest friends gathered to wish him a safe voyage home. In addition to the young people who enjoyed the get-together, hosts and hostesses were in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Watts, the Reverend and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pepperdine, Mrs. James Mayfield and Mr. and Mrs. Jan Brumeyer, Sr.

Sunday was a happy day for Mrs. Tom Bourgeois, Sr., of Waveland Avenue for her family gathered together for the first time in many years. Mrs. Bourgeois had a family of twelve. On Sunday her six surviving children were present. The group enjoyed an outdoor picnic on the broad lawn of the family home and renewed happy memories of childhood and youth. Those who came for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bourgeois and daughters and grandchildren of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bourgeois and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richard of Waveland and New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bourgeois and four children of Gulfport; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bourgeois and children of Waveland and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bourgeois of Bay St. Louis.

Ocean Springs and the 4-H Camp have drawn several Waveland Misses. Leaving Monday to attend the camp were Phyllis and Christine Sauer, Yvonne Schwartz, Diane Dickson and Gail Stewart.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Cude Rousseau went to Gulfport on Sunday to attend the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carver, former residents of Logtown.

Birthday wishes go this week to Mrs. Louise Van Buskirk who celebrated her 83rd birthday on June 18. She enjoyed all of the trimmings and her children who came to add to her happiness.

Mrs. Don Reynolds and Mrs. Ralph Shelton were honored at a get-acquainted party held recently at the home of Mrs. Barbara White on Market Street. The ladies and their families recently moved to

Now that "Sea Hunt" is over, better start writing this column and give the dope on the waters around here. With no rain lately, most streams are good for fishing—some salt water and fresh water fish are being caught.

Horatio Favre has been after the green trout and caught another big one the other day.

John Gleason, U. S. Steel Corp., Dallas La. Bauve, Corps of Engineers and Joe Glover on their fishing trip Sunday caught some Specks and green trout but mostly cat fish and green flies according to Joe. Dallas verified Joe's statement—biggest flies I ever saw—too bad you can't eat 'em.

Mrs. Jos. Galie of Dunbar and Felicity has joined the Pass Isles Golf Club and should give the lady golfers some stiff competition.

Ernie Buchert of Metairie, La.,

Thomas and Gary McNeely, son and daughter, are vacationing in Morgan City, La., on vacation and having a great time crabbing and fishing these days.

Soft crabs are still being caught but not so plentiful. The King trio are getting their share each night.

Big things are being planned for all who attend the Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo this weekend July 4 through 6th at Gulfport. Lots of fishing, entertainment, etc. See article elsewhere in this issue.

There will be a handicap match tournament at Pass Christian Golf Club for both ladies and men Sunday and Monday. Players will be divided into flights of 16 with 2 nine-hole matches played on Sunday and two on Monday. Entrance fee $3.00 which includes a Shrimp-Ball at 7 p.m. Monday July 4th. If you do not play in the tourney the charge is $1.50. Better come out.

Vice Raid To Show At Legion Theatre

Thursday, July 7th

"Vice Raid," which will open at the Legion Theatre, Thursday, July 7th, bares the operations of the call girl racket run by nation wide crime syndicates. Based on factual research into police records the Charles Ellis screenplay stars Mamie Van Doren, Richard Cogan and Brad Dexter for United Artists release. Edward L. Cahn directed for producer Robert E. Kent.

With her portrayal of a call girl hired to frame a police officer, Mamie Van Doren is assigned a top-flight dramatic role. Relegated to merely eye-catching scenes of movies at the beginning of her career, Miss Van Doren has successfully parlayed her platinum-blond hair, her fabulous figure and dramatic talent into one of Hollywood's top female personalites.

Himself a fighter, a man who overcomes obstacles, Richard Cogan is ideally suited to essay the role of the incorruptible police officer who doesn't cease crusading against organized crime even after he's been framed and dismissed from the force.

Portraying her unscrupulous, ruthless crime syndicate boss in "Vice Raid" is nothing new to Brad Dexter who has built a successful screen career on rank villainy. The amicable, handsome bachelor actually enjoys playing disagreeable characters in films as he feels the role usually offers more opportunity to act.

Personals . . .

Mrs. Laurie Kiefer returned Friday from a visit of several weeks with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiefer, Jr., in Lubbock, Texas.

Marion Parker, Hancock County nurse, who was a patient at Hancock General Hospital last year, is able to be back at his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Billups, Jr. and children, Betty and Guy III, guests of her mother, Mrs. Gertrude and family.

Driving this weekend to spend part of July holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Piazza will be their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Pisciotta, children and son of Piazza's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John and Miss Irene Johnson, all of New Orleans.

Michael Plunkett, who was a patient at Hancock General Hospital and was discharged Saturday and is doing nicely.

A permit was issued by the City of St. Louis this week for the erection of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Favre on Dunbar Avenue and Felicity Street. Mrs. Favre recently sold her dwelling at 750 Market to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stief, Jr., and she will occupy same until completion of her home. Favre is the contractor.

Jeanne Sa Franeck has returned to her home in Denver, Colorado, after a visit with her parents.

The Pusher Opens At Legion Theatre Thursday, July 7th

"The Pusher" which will open at the Legion Theatre Thursday July 7th through United Artists release, might well have been written from today's headlines dealing with loan sharks, juvenile delinquency and the efforts of a municipal police force to curb the evil. The story was written by Ed McBain (pen name Evan Hunter author of "Blackboard Jungle"). The screenplay was written by Harold Robbins, who has a string of best-selling novels to his credit.

Gene Milford directed and co-produced the film with Sidney Katz. Noted jazz composer and conductor Raymond Scott penned the score for the picture. Appearing in the cast are Kathy Carlisle (who makes her screen debut), Douglas F. Rodgers, Felice Orlando, Robert Lansing, Sara Allgood and Sloan Simpson.

"The Pusher," while depicting the wretchedness of the whole underworld, emphasizes the particular evileness of the dope pusher whose predatory nature knows no bounds of viciousness.

C. C. McDonald, Sr., who is a patient at Touro Infirmary, is reported improving satisfactorily.

Sister Michael Marie of the Dominican Order, who is attending summer classes at Loyola University in New Orleans, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Preague over the weekend. She was accompanied by Sister Anne.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kiefer and children, Christie and Stephen arrived Friday night from Minneapolis, Minn., for a visit of two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiefer and his sister, Miss Laurie Kiefer. Also visiting in the Kiefer home this week is another son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Martin Kiefer and children of Norco, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chapman and children, Susan and Rusty, will leave Saturday for a two weeks vacation in Alamogordo, N. M., where they will be guests of her sister and family, the F. C. Phillips. Enroute they will visit for the 4th of July holidays with Mr. Chapman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Vidovic, in Dallas, Texas. They will be accompanied home by Mrs. Chapman's mother, Mrs. W. W. Morgan, and the Chapman's daughter, Mary Jane who has been visiting the Phillips.

Mrs. Arthur Miller, chairman of St. Henry's recent church fair, wishes to thank all who helped in anyway to make the event a success. The T. V. won by Mrs. George Anderson of Bay St. Louis, and the electric fan donated by Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wilcox, was given to Mrs. Lena Cuevas, Mrs. Miller added.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kerr and daughters Lynn and Allison of Gulfport, were Sunday guests of the Dan M. Russells.

Mrs. A. W. Moore and daughter, Mrs. Theodore Thomas and Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. John Renz of Gulfport, will attend the solemn Golden Jubilee Mass of their brother and uncle, Rev. Henry E. Phillips, at St. Anthony of Padua Church, in Atlanta, Ga., next Wednesday.

Staeche-Fouert Wedding

MRS. CHARLES F. STAECHE

White gladioli, pompons and Miss, and Miss Dianne Poursin palms decorated Our Lady of the New Orleans. They wore pale Gulf Catholic Church Saturday blue organza dresses, identical to morning when Miss Vicki Fouert became the bride of Mr. Charles F. Staehle.

Miss Fouert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor F. Fouert and Mr. Staehle is the son of Mr. William Adam Staehle, of Bay Saint Louis.

The double ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Michael Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Mauffray and Mrs. Theodore Thomas sang "O, Lord I Am Not Worthy," "For Me in Love" and "Sanctissima." They were accompanied by Professor Joseph Hemmersbach.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white silk organza. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with an apron effect of Alencon lace ending in a flare in the back. The fitted bodice featured an off-the-shoulder neckline trimmed with lace, and short sleeves.

Her finger-tip veil of imported illusion was held in place by a small pearl tiara and a string of pearls completed her attire. She carried a bouquet of briful roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Barbara Kidd was maid of honor. Her frock of pale pink silk organza was fashioned with a full skirt and fitted bodice with a portrait neckline trimmed with a matching rose. She wore pink slippers and a head band of pink flowers with veil and carried a cascade bouquet of purple asters.

Other attendants were Miss Marie Therese Staehle, sister of the bride-groom, and Miss Marilyn Heitzmann, both of Bay St. Louis; Mrs. Thomas Kidd of Jackson, trimmed with cotton, beige and brown bat, brown accessories and a green cymbidium orchid corsage.

Miss Rita Sporl, cousin of the bride, who assisted in receiving wire a blue lame' sheath, white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

For traveling the bride wore a pale blue linen sheath with matching jacket and navy accessories.

On their return from a wedding trip in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Staehle, will make their home in New Orleans.

Mrs. Staehle, a graduate of St. Joseph Academy, Bay St. Louis, is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gene Nobles and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Fouert. The bridegroom graduated from Tiblier, Miss. Darley Mercadal and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rabbe, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rabbe, all of New Orleans. His maternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sporl and his paternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Staehle.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Tiblier, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. Thomas
